Prisoner Jumps From Train.

While Deputy Sheriff Monson was escorting Will Austin, a negro law-breaker, from Yoakum to this place on Wednesday's incoming passenger, the negro made a daring attempt to escape by leaping from the fast-moving train near the oil mill. Our gritty chief deputy was not to be despoiled of his prey and made a similar leap a few seconds later. He chased the negro some distance down the railway track to ward the bridge and fired his pistol at him twice. The shots seemed only to increase the culprit's speed, until he became entangled with a mudhole, which circumstance gave his pursuer time to overtake and recapture him. Neither Mr. Monson nor the negro were seriously hurt in jumping from the train, though the former measured his length on the ground and had one of his hands bruised somewhat.

Austin is a young man under indictment for swindling, the offense having been committed near Shiner. He was placed in jail.—Hallettsville New Era.

Dragging Pains

2825 Keeley St.,

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 2, 1903.

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groin. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Mamie Bush

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.
